Help System and User Guide for FaciliWorks 8i

When you need help clarifying a topic in FaciliWorks 8i or learning new functions within the program, the User and Administrator Guides are just a click away.

From your FaciliWorks 8i home page,

In the ongoing battle to mitigate the spread of coronavirus, facility managers have been bombarded with an unremitting and ever-shifting wave of advice, guidance, and how-to. Often, that guidance has seemed contradictory between scientists, healthcare organizations, and government representatives. This doesn't always mean something nefarious is occurring. Rather, it's because as scientists learn more about coronavirus, and how it spreads, the guidance on how to prevent that spread necessarily changes as well. For instance, it wasn't until early October that the U.S. Centers for Disease Control and Prevention reversed course and issued a statement that the coronavirus could in fact travel distances greater than six feet indoors through aerosolized particles.
